

Attendance Charter

Faith communities and schools are working together in Pendle to ensure that all students benefit from excellent attendance at school everyday and, if they attend them, at places of worship in the evening and at weekends.

Your local faith leaders are working together with your child's school to ensure that every child is in school every day, as well as accessing all wider educational opportunities offered by faith organisations.

Together we recognise the impact that good attendance and punctuality have on achievement and attainment in the classroom.

Consistency and punctuality are key factors in ensuring our children gain the most from education.

ATTENDANCE

Persistent Absence

0 missed lessons	0 days off a year	100%	Perfect!
20 missed lessons	4 days off a year	98%	Very good
40 missed lessons	8 days off a year	96%	Good
50 missed lessons	10 days off a year	95%	Improvement needed
55 missed lessons	11 days off a year	94%	Concerned
95 missed lessons	19 days off a year	90%	Very concerned
145 missed lessons	29 days off a year	85%	Significant impact on learning

There are 190 school days in the year. This means there are 175 non-school days for children and families to:

- Visit relatives
- Go shopping
- Attend appointments

A child who has less than 90% attendance at school is classed as a persistent absentee. This means their attendance is unacceptable and will be affecting their lifelong learning chances.

Punctuality matters – learning starts straight away every day, and children who miss the first minutes of school are often missing out on some of the most important minutes of the day. Being just 10 minutes late each day leads to a loss of 30 hours learning in a school year.

Your child misses out on valuable learning when they are absent, which may never be made up.

The impact on your child...

Children with good attendance are more than twice as likely to get 5 good GCSEs than those with poor attendance.

Taking your child out of education teaches disrespect for the importance of learning.

Please support your child's future by ensuring they attend places of education on time every day.
